

DeMolay

Is what the members want it to be. How much you participate will determine the value of your membership. DeMolay started with nine young men and has grown to include all fifty states as well as Canada, Japan, Australia, Brazil, Germany and many other countries worldwide. Over one million young men have enjoyed membership in DeMolay. Based upon the life of Jacques DeMolay, the last Grand Master of the Knights Templar, DeMolay today teaches loyalty, brotherhood, responsibility, cooperation and leadership skills.

To join DeMolay, a young man must:

- Be between the ages of 12 and 21
- Be of good character and reputation and responsible for his actions
- Believe in God, or a Supreme Being
- Complete an application

What is DeMolay?

Founded in 1919, by Frank S. Land in Kansas City, Missouri, DeMolay is a community based organization for young men.

DeMolay members learn life-skills, responsibility, and cooperation by working together to plan and carry out their customized program of social, sports, and community service activities. Adult volunteers act as role models and advisors.

This organization is based on seven principles that will help young men develop into men of good character.

- Filial Love (Love of parents)
- Reverence for Sacred Things (Belief in a god)
- Courtesy
- Comradeship
- Fidelity
- Cleanness (in thought, word and deed)
- Patriotism
